Biblical Truth:

There is comfort in God's holiness and joy in obedience.

Context:

Paul suffered many disappointments during his missionary journeys but took comfort in God's holiness, and found joy in obedience.

Learning Goals:

- Explore Goal: Your students will learn that disappointments in life aren't oversights by God.
- Transform Goal: Your students will take comfort in God's holiness, and know joy in obedience.

Prayer Suggestions:

As you prepare for this lesson, pray for your students.

- Pray that students will have hearts and minds that hear and understand.
- Pray that students would know God is good, and He does what's best.

Discussion Questions:

- Why did Paul's handkerchief heal and cast out demons, while the sons of Sceva got beat up for wanting the same outcome?
- Why does God's holiness bring us comfort?
- How does obedience lead to joy?
- What plans do we need to entrust to God?
